HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

Isn't Valentine's Day great? Personally, I love it because it's the only time of the year I get to eat those little candy hearts with words written on them. The only thing I love more than the candy hearts is getting to spend $50 on a $5 bouquet of flowers. Why did Americans spend over $22 billion last year celebrating this one day? What is Valentine's Day?

I'm glad you asked.....

One legend states that Valentine was a minister who served during the third century in Rome. When Emperor Claudius II decided that single men made better soldiers than those with wives & families, he outlawed marriage for young men. Valentine, seeing the insanity of such a law, ignored Claudius & continued to perform marriages for young couples in secret. When Valentine's actions were discovered, Claudius ordered that he be executed. The date of his execution was February 14.

The greatest thing about Valentine's Day isn't the flowers or candy hearts (even though those are great); it's about being close to those you love. The story of Valentine is crazy but it fails in comparison to the greatest love story ever told. This story doesn't have candy hearts & roses; it's all about the love of a Father who gave us the greatest gift ever: His Son!!! We celebrate Valentine's one day/year. We should celebrate the love of Jesus EVERYDAY!!!
