2015 Theme: "Homecoming"

However, Jesus did not permit him, but said to him, "Go home to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had compassion on you." Mark 5:19

I love November! Other than the constant rain this year, it is beautiful. The leaves begin to change and fall, the temperature get to the perfect place for bon fires, and my mind turns to turkey and stuffing. As we come up on Thanksgiving, I am reminded of being thankful. We talked about it before Trick or Treat, but I want to make sure that I spend time being thankful to God. I am thankful for my friends, my family, this congregation, and many more blessings. I think it is important to make sure we spend time thanking God on this holiday.

I also think it is important that we take time to thank each other for all of the things we do for each other. This congregation is full of people who do a lot of great behind the scene activities. Take time to go out of your way to thank those people because often times they go unnoticed. It is nice to be thanked for the hard work you do.

I am also thankful for our Youth Group. We have been working to raise money to sponsor a cow for a needy family in a third world country through Heifer International. So, if any of the teenagers ask you for money to buy a cow, now you know why. Our Youth Group and our kids have also gotten into the full swing of Lads to Leaders. We have been studying the book of Matthew. You should ask any of the kids what they have learned from the book.

Never forget how blessed you are, count your blessings, and make sure to be thankful now in this season but also every day.

– Andrew Fulks
