SERVE AS JESUS SERVED!

It has been a great year so far. February is getting going and this Sunday is Valentine's Day. I am writing this as we get prepared for our Valentine Banquet. I love this time of the year. Not necessarily the preparation for such an event, but knowing that we as a church will get to come together to serve each other. I am also proud of our kids and getting to let them spend time with all of our members in a way that helps people to see what I get to see all the time. We have a great set of young teens. They make me proud often, and I love getting to see others think of them as I do. That being said, I want to look at service. We live in a culture that does not talk about serving each other. We live in a world that says, get ahead, have people serve you, and if you make enough money you won't have to take care of anyone but you. Sometimes I fear we get caught up in that ideal. Jesus wanted us to look at it differently. In Matthew 20:16 Jesus says, "The last will be first, and the first will be last." We don't need to think about who did the most or whether or not we are doing the most, but instead do what there is to be done, because what you do you do for God.

In John 13, we see Jesus serving. Sometimes we get too comfortable with Jesus, but he is the son of God. He decides to wash the disciple's feet. This is the job of a lowly servant, but Jesus said that we should do this for each other. We should be servants, just as our Lord and Savior did. So as February continues on, serve one another. Husbands serve your wives. Wives serve your husbands. Friends, serve each other. Children serve your parents, and parents serve your children. The world is ripe with service opportunities, show people that you are like your Savior.
