EASTER COMING...

Easter is just two weeks away, and that means it is time for Lads to Leaders. We are so blessed to have so many children interested in being trained in ways to serve this church and God's kingdom. You would be blessed if you took the opportunity to support our kids in their practice before the convention in Nashville. This Sunday (13th), we have several boys going to Ringgold to lead singing with other guys participating in lads to leaders. It starts at 6 p.m., and there is pizza after the singing. We need singers to go support them and I know you will be uplifted. Also, Next Sunday the 20th our second service will be full of our Lads to Leaders boys. We will have several of them delivering their speeches as well as leading singing and leading the prayers. After the service is over the different puppet teams will be performing for those who would like to watch. I am excited to see all of it as I am sure you are as well.

As Easter approaches we will begin to see more and more Easter bunnies around town, and then I am sure several of us will have Easter Egg hunts. I loved Easter growing up because it was the only time I could go hunt for candy outside and it be safe to eat. Every once and a while, one of the eggs would have some money in it. Those eggs were the best. The funny thing is we're not trained to expect that, candy and money in plastic eggs would not make sense to us. Jesus was the same way to the Israelites. They had been trained to look for a Messiah, but he was supposed to be a king. Jesus came down as the son to a carpenter...the son of God to be raised by a poor family. He was born in a manger and grew up in Nazareth, even Nathaniel, one of his disciples, said "what good can come out of Nazareth?" That is why they took our savior and crucified him, but in this we were saved. He died on a cross and was raised on the third day. While we come together every Sunday to celebrate his death, burial, and resurrection, Easter is a time that much of the world celebrates it, even if they don't know. I encourage you to read over the story of his death burial and resurrection and pray that God would use this Easter as an opportunity to share the wonderful story of Christ with those you know.

THANKS

Thanks to the Activity CARE Group for hosting such a fun "Kite Day" for the Elementary families. There were 60 people and 25 of them were children! The food was great! The kids had fun jumping on the trampoline and just running and playing in the beautiful weather. All the adults enjoyed the fellowship. Then, the kite flying in the field was so much fun for the kids...and some of the adults, too! Thank you, Bobby and Jane, for having such a great outing at your farm! We love you!

Bingham and Will Locke, from Central, will be leading a song each at Ringgold. There will be about 12 - 14 L2L boys leading singing, several, of course, from other congregations. We need people to come and sing so the boys will have someone to lead. Everyone is invited to come. Pizza will be served after the singing for everyone who comes, Mike Gurganus says. If you plan to stay for pizza, please let Ross know!
