John 15:5

A Mother's Love

In 1 Corinthians 13 we read of the purest form of love that human beings can know. This passage describes a love that transcends emotional or physical attachment. The word for love in the original language is said to have been obscure and not very meaningful until Jesus defined it by His ministry. One way of thinking about the love chapter is through the eyes of a mother and the love that a mother has for her children. Mothers are instantly attached, the first time she sees her child because this was the being formed and growing inside her.

Every aspect of love in verses four through eight apply to our Moms in some way. Even though your mom may get exasperated with you, no one is ever going to be as patient and kind with you as Mom. Your Mom is truly sad when she knows your sin but is the first to cheer your repentance and will often urge you like no one else to seek forgiveness. Think about all your Mom has had to bear from you and your siblings as you grew up. Your Mom may be the only living soul who believes all things when it comes to you. When you fail, it is usually Mom that you can count on to believe in you so that you can try again. A Mother's love; when a Mother loves, that love never fails. Happy Mother's Day.
