Outreach Meeting – Tuesday, June 28

I am excited about our second Outreach Meeting, this coming Tuesday night at 7 p.m. in our Fellowship Room. As you may remember, a few weeks ago, most of the adult Bible Classes were given a survey about "Outreach Possibilities". We got back about 66 surveys with a total of 33 ideas for Central Outreach.

This past Sunday night, June 19, we had 23 Central members who came together to discuss these "Outreach Possibilities". For two hours, we all took turns talking and expressing our concerns, ideas, frustrations and desires about Central and Outreach. It was clear that these Christians are passionate about Christ and Central church of Christ and Outreach. It was stirring and convicting to hear what was said and experienced. It was great. So much so, that I would love for as many Central members and Central leaders (elders, deacons, ministry leaders, ministers and, wives to come and to have your heart and soul stirred.

Where will we go from here? I don't really know...except...we are meeting again and you are invited. It's this coming Tuesday night, June 28 at 7 p.m. in our Fellowship Room. Anyone and Everyone is invited...especially Central leadership and families. I hope the Fellowship Room is packed to the walls with Christian Souls who want to see our church family grow in spirit and in number. You could call it a family meeting. We will have some discussion guidelines expressed at the beginning, but what we want to discuss is "In what ways does God want the Central church to be 'salt and light' in our community and draw souls to Him?" Please pray about this and please come and help make this a spiritually encouraging time for those present and for our church future.
