Strengthening the Soul

I hope you have been blessed by our three Summer Series speakers so far this month. Robert Darby, Tyler Gilreath and Greg Nance shared lessons for us based on "Simple Songs of Faith." So many of the songs we sing in the assembly have wonderfully important lessons for strengthening our souls. This coming Wednesday night, four of our own brothers will be sharing a favorite song and a short lesson from the song. I hope you will be here Wednesday night to encourage them and be strengthened in your faith.

September will bring new Adult Bible Class offerings on Wednesday nights. Ross Jordan will be leading a study of the Gospel of John in the Auditorium. John's Gospel is so very unique in many ways. Although the same story is told, John has a marvelous way of sharing so many different "shades" from the life and teaching of Jesus. Join Ross in the Auditorium if you want to dig into the Gospel of John.

In the Fellowship Hall, I will be leading a study entitled, "Simple Discipleship." We know Jesus' last words - "Go and make disciples" - should be our first work. But many of us struggle with making disciples. I want us to wrestle with what discipleship is all about. Possibly many of us aren't making disciples because we don't know how to be a disciple. Join us as we take a look at Jesus, the Bible and how we should be simply disciples.

September also brings the beginning of another year of Ladies Bible Class. I am honored to be teaching this class again this year. We will begin this session on Tuesday, September 13th. Ladies, mark your calendar and join us on Tuesday's as we will be taking a look at "The 12 Apostles: Jesus' 1st Followers."

We're getting a group together for a day of fun, riding the marked dirt and gravel trails at either Houston Valley in west Whitfield County or perhaps travel up to Chattanooga to ride at Prentice Cooper - we'll confirm a few weeks from now. It will be great fellowship and wonderful scenery. See Bob Lee with questions.

SYMPATHY

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Dianne and Jerry Smith and their family in the recent death of Dianne's aunt Mary Belle Price. She passed away on August 11 and had requested no viewing or funeral service. If you haven't already, share your love and condolences with Dianne and Jerry and their family.

BABY SHOWER

All ladies are invited to a Baby Shower for Alana Sane on Sunday, August 21, at 4 p.m. It will be in the Fellowship Hall. After having two boys, Alana and Mathew are having a GIRL! They are registered at Walmart and Target. The nursery is red, white and gray.
