WOW!

When's the last time you were actually surprised by something or someone? It seems that as I get older, there are fewer things that catch me "off-guard". You can imagine my surprise when, this past weekend, I was a part of something that left me saying "WOW"!!! We had a teen lock-in on Friday, March 5th. There were 31 teenagers "locked in" at our building. For many, the thought of 31 teenagers at one time in one place seems like the antithesis of fun and want no part of it. If you were at the lock-in, you would have been pleasantly surprised; our teens were absolutely amazing. No matter what we were doing, EVERYONE listened attentively, actively participated in every activity, followed instructions so well that I never had to repeat anything, and, most importantly, they acted in a way that would bring honor to Christ and make every member at Central proud to be associated with such a youth group. I know I am honored to be a part of it!!!

In Him,

Joshua S. Holloway
