"Highest of High's & Lowest of Low's"

94,608,000 seconds, 8,760 hours, or 1,095 days: no matter how you choose to look at it, three years is a long time. This past week marked three years since Ben was 1st rushed to the hospital and the beginning of "Ben's Journey". Over the past three years, we have experienced the "highest of high's" and the "lowest of low's." Through it all, there have been two things that never changed: 1.) the grace & peace that only God can provide 2.) the love & support of you, our Central family. If it weren't for you, we never would have been able to go to NYC for treatment. One of the things that I love & admire the most about our church family is that when you know about a need, you all swarm to it and ensure it's taken care of. I pray that, going forward, if we continue to look for & meet the needs of those that require help, our congregation will not only grow but we will thrive!!!

From the bottom of our hearts, THANK YOU so much for, not only loving us the way you do, but for making Ben's health & well-being such a high priority in your everyday life.

In Him,
Joshua & Katie Holloway
