It's Friday, But Sunday's Coming!

"The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life." - Jesus - Luke 9:22

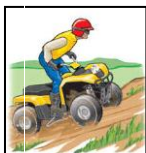

Have you ever had a week in your life where everything changed? Maybe it was the birth of a child, the loss of a loved one, a change of address or some other major life event. It is amazing that in the course of one week - 7 days - life can forever be changed. We will be looking this morning at "part #2" of the last week of the life of Jesus. We have seen Jesus move from Bethany, where he enjoyed the fellowship of dear friends, to Jerusalem where he spent his last days teaching and being challenged by the religious authorities. We left him last week after his last meal with his disciples, being arrested in the garden and taken before the high priest. Today we will travel with him from his "trial" before Pilate, through unfathomable pain and cruelty at the hands of the Roman soldiers, to the cross, to the tomb - and finally, on Resurrection Sunday we will see him as our risen Savior. One week that changed our world forever! Hallelujah!
