Where life begins...
and love never ends
Family

A Sunday school teacher was discussing the Ten Commandments with her five and six year olds. After explaining the commandment to "honor" thy Father and thy Mother, she asked, "Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?"

Without missing a beat one little boy (the oldest of a family) answered, "Thou shall not kill."

Being the Youth Minister here at Central I assume most people will think it is my job to write about the teenagers in the Bulletin, and obviously at the bottom of the article I will remind you about things we have coming up, but I want to take a second and talk to families.

Deuteronomy 6:4-9 says

⁴Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. ⁵Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. ⁶These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. ⁷Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ⁸Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. ⁹Write them on the door frames of your houses and on your gates.

We have been called as the family of God. We have been called to know the words of God and share them with our children. When we sit, walk, lie down, and get up. The words of God should be all around us. If we do not take time to talk to our children who will. I believe that parents and family love their children more than anyone else. If you love them the most you should take time to share the scriptures with your children. If you who love them the most won't, then who will?

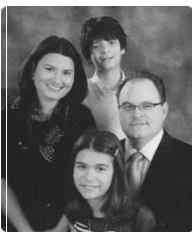

As Fall starts up, it is again time for trunk or treat and the Fall festival. So start dusting off your pumpkin carving skills and that ridiculous costume that you wear every Halloween, I know I will need to get up in the attic to find mine. I encourage you to make time in your schedule for both events. October 26th will be trunk or treat and we would love to have everyone there dressed up. November 5th is the Fall festival and we would love to have you there. I remember the food alone was worth coming, not to mention the great fellowship time.

CELEBRATE

THE COLLINS FAMILY

OCT. 15TH DAY OF HONOR FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT, FIREFIGHTERS & EMT'S

On Saturday, October 15th we will host a "donuts & coffee" for our local law enforcement, firefighters & EMT's. 8 a.m. – 11 a.m. under the Pavillion. If you would like to help with the event or donate money, see Mel or Sylvie Sane. Afterwards, the activity Care Group will be going on a hike and everyone is welcome to join them.

SHARING IS CARING

The 1st – 5th Grade kids will once again collect money, in the next few weeks, to buy toys for the SHARING IS CARING community project. It allows interviewed families to get new toys and items for their children for Christmas. Our children look forward every year to shop for the toys with the money they have collected. This is an activity that we couple with our Christmas party. If you would like to help...first of all remind your child to bring money to class. Second...you may want to donate funds to help them reach their goal of $500. Shopping Sunday will be December 4th.
