"People were bringing little children to Jesus to have him touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, 'Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them...' And he took the children in his arms, put his hands on them and blessed them." • Mark 10:13-16

Have you ever noticed how we use the word "bless" in different ways? We say to folks when we feel sorry for them – "Well, bless their hearts". Or when someone sneezes we say, "Bless you!" We ask for God's blessings in our lives and when something good happens we may say, "God really blessed me." Used to be in our culture, a young man would go to the father of his beloved and ask for her Father's "blessing" and permission to marry his daughter. When you look to Scripture, the idea of "the blessing" has a rich and significant meaning.

In Old Testament days, the father's blessing on the firstborn son involved his birthright and his blessing. To fail to get your father's blessing was a traumatic blow to a young man's future. This Sunday we are finishing up our KINGDOM FAMILY series with a lesson on KINGDOM DADS. We will be looking at the importance we fathers must place on giving our children our blessings. Blessing our children must be a prayerful, thoughtful and intentional process. What does that look like? I am looking forward to sharing some suggestions about this with you Sunday morning. Blessings!

- STEVE
