

Josh Ketchum

Josh grew up in the church on a farm in Southeast Missouri. He graduated from Freed-Hardeman University in 1998. He completed a Masters of Ministry and Masters of Divinity from FHU in 2000 and 2012. He recently completed his Doctor of Ministry degree in church leadership from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville. He met Amanda Carson at FHU and they were married on January 1st, 2000. They have four children—Austin (16), Brooke (14), Landon (12), and Caleb (8). They served the 7 Oaks Church of Christ for nearly 18 years in Mayfield, Kentucky before moving to Henderson, Tennessee in July of 2021. Josh is a Bible professor at FHU teaching textual, leadership, and preaching courses. Their family enjoys playing golf, youth sports, traveling, raising livestock on our homestead farm, and just being together.
