WE ARE EXCITED ABOUT A NEW YEAR WITH LOTS OF MEMORIES AND BUILDING FRIENDSHIPS!

*DATES AND TIMES SUBJECT TO CHANGE

As 2024 comes to a close, I want to thank you for your unwavering support and encouragement for our Central Children's Department. As Shane has mentioned in his sermons, several times, Central is truly a special place! My family has been blessed beyond measure by you all.

Our children's program has seen significant growth this year as we've joyfully welcomed new babies and several precious new families. Most importantly, we've seen growth in our children's Bible knowledge and their relationship with God. I pray this growth continues in 2025!

As the new year begins, it brings fresh opportunities and, at times, new challenges. I'm excited about what lies ahead and know that your support will make all the difference!

Mark your calendar and start inviting friends, family, and neighbors for our 2025 events listed below.

Wishing you all a happy, healthy New Year!
Mendy

PRAYER REQUESTS

- Susan Anderson requires assistance getting to church. It needs to be someone who can help her with her "rollator" walker and has enough space in their vehicle. Please call her at 706-277-3200.
- Josh Quinn, Lamar & Debbie Quinn's son, had a pacemaker implanted at the end of December, but unfortunately, it has become infected, and he is also dealing with pneumonia. He is currently receiving care in Hamilton. Please keep him in your thoughts and prayers.
- Reatha Tilley continues to be in need of our prayers.
